PRAYER

via Presbyterian Outlook

Ellen Williams Hensle

Provider God, we give you thanks for all your good gifts to us:
for work and rest, for creativity and play,
for this community in which to practice our faith together.
Take these offerings we bring today and use them to meet the needs of those around us.
May our work and witness reflect our belief in your compassionate care for us and for all you have created.
In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

PRAYER & SENDING

alt from Carol Prickett

original in Presbyterian Outlook

Christ drenches us in love every moment of our lives.
It is in response to that love that we are called to love others.
As the church we go out to celebrate God's love,
and to make it tangible in the way we live.
May the God who made you uphold you,
the Christ you saved you enfold you,
and the Spirit who dwells within you embolden you,
this day and forevermore.

Amen

*We have this treasure from God,
but we are like clay jars that hold the treasure.
This shows that the great power is from God...

Reflecting on and Praying with Scriptures

As suggested by the Revised Common Lectionary

Scriptures

1 Sam. 3:1-10 (11-20) or Deut. 5:12-15

Psalm 139:1-6, 13-18 or Psalm 81:1-10

2 Corinthians 4:5-12 and Mark 2:23-3:6

Questions for Reflection:

Most of us strive to demonstrate trustworthy character in our lives, often not understanding trustworthy character as a fruit of our relationship with God. Reflect on 1 Samuel 3:19-20 (“As Samuel grew up, the Lord was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground. And all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was a trustworthy prophet of the Lord”).

How does this challenge our understanding of what makes us trustworthy?

Morning Prayers:

Praise the Lord, for it is your new mercy
that woke me this morning.

I praise you as I see your wonderful works
through the window of day.

I praise you as I feel the movement of your mysterious works in me.

May this new day be a song to my Creator,
who is willing to befriend me in renewed grace. Amen.

Evening Prayers:

Lord, I close this day acknowledging you
as my God, my helper, my refuge,
for it is your grace that sustained me all day.

I lay down my burdens
of the unwise choices, the unfinished tasks;

I humbly ask that you may cover me
in the blanket of mercy.

I praise you with a joyful song of your salvation
in which I find peace and hope through Jesus Christ. Amen.
